

The documentary, THIS LAND was screened at the Conference followed by a discussion with the film maker, Miki Redilinghuys. The 48 minute doccic follows a community in a small village as they oppose the development of a mine and assert their right to the land on which they live.

Free to watch on the African continent at:

<https://afridocs.net/watch-now/this-land/>

